Let's start with a topic of the number: school

After a long summer holidays, we are unfortunately back to school. Some pupils have new subjects. It is not easy to start school year after a long, exhausting holiday. 😊 We have some suggestions for a good start.

1.

Find a motivation

Don't bother yourself thinking how quick holidays passed by or how you don't want to go to school. Make a positive attitude. Imagine that school is a place where you can have fun, where you can hang out with friends, but still learn something. Find a sympathy and you will go easier through your problems at school.

Organize yourself

With a good organization, you will find a time for everything. Find time for everything you need for school, follow lessons instead TV guide, read a book for school, plan in advance... Be active in school and you will have less job at home so you can pay attention on your outdoor school activities which make you happy.

3.

Avoid extremes

It's Monday. You wake up in a last minute and frantically look for your "Happy bracelet" or your shirt with Cool sign which is on the bottom of your laundry basket. This isn't a good start of a week. Prepare what you will wear on time and avoid extremes.

Going positive

Don't look on professors like on people who want to make your life harder. And they, like people of meat and blood, have their good and bad days. They try to do their job as best as possible so you try to do your duties the best way you can. That way you will avoid unwanted situations and quarrels. Put a smile on while teacher is in the class and you will probably get better marks.

5.

Have fun

Find time for friends and relaxing. If someone is complaining about you, you just say to him the same old story: how the time in the school is the best time in life. Just relax and enjoy.

Magical places: London

London

London is the capital city of England and the United Kingdom. With an estimated 8,308,369 residents in 2012, London is the most populous region, urban zone and metropolitan area in the United Kingdom and is the largest city in the European Union.

Standing on the River Thames, London has been a major settlement for two millennia, its history going back to its founding by the Romans, who named it Londinium. London is a leading global city, with strengths in the arts, commerce, education, entertainment, fashion, finance, healthcare, media, professional services, research and development, tourism and transport all contributing to its route.

It is one of the world's leading financial centres and has the fifth- or sixth-largest metropolitan area GDP in the world depending on measurement. London is a world cultural capital. It is the world's most-visited city as measured by international arrivals and has the world's largest city airport system measured by passenger traffic. London's 43 universities form the largest concentration of higher education in Europe. In 2012, London became the first city to host the modern Summer Olympic Games three times. London has a diverse range of peoples and cultures, and more than 300 languages are spoken within its boundaries. London had an official population of 8,174,100, making it the most populous municipality in the European Union, and accounting for 12.5% of the UK population.

The Greater London Urban Area is the second-largest in the EU with a population of 9,787,426 according to the 2011 census, while the London metropolitan area is the largest in the EU with a total population of 13,614,409, the Greater London Authority puts the population of London metropolitan region at 21 million. London had the largest population of any city in the world from around 1831 to 1925. London contains four World Heritage Sites: the Tower of London; Kew Gardens; the site comprising the Palace of Westminster, Westminster Abbey, Westminster Church; and the historic settlement of Greenwich (in which the Royal Observatory, Greenwich marks the Prime Meridian, 0° longitude, and GMT).

Other famous landmarks include Buckingham Palace, the London Eye, Piccadilly Circus, St Paul's Cathedral, Tower Bridge, Trafalgar Square, and The Shard. London is home to numerous museums, galleries, libraries, sporting events and other cultural institutions, including the British Museum, National Gallery, Tate Modern, British Library and 40 West End theatres. The London Underground is the oldest underground railway network in the world. So, London is a great place and I think you should visit it.

Animal: Dog

DOG

Dog is an animal. He is very smart. When they do something, they look at you with their beautiful eyes. They behave as if nothing has happened. There are many types of dogs. Some dogs like to bark a lot because they are often on the chain. In the shop for dogs you can always find all for them: shampoo, comb, food, toys. The most famous shops are Zoo plus, Pet shop. Most dogs have floating skins.

There are a lot of food types. There is a dry and wet food. Brands of dry food are Bosch, Eukanuba, Happy dog supreme, Hills, Pro plan, Robur (Bozita), Royal canin breed, Royal canin size, Taste of the wild. Brands of wet food are Animonda, Apllaws, Herrmanss, Bio, Hills, Lukullus menu gustico, Naturdiet, Rinti, Rocco, Schesir, Terra canis.

I have a dog. His name is Grga. He is a Labrador. He is 1 and a half years old. He is sweet and cuddly. (Ana K.)

Now some fun with computer games!

Computer game: NFS

Need for Speed (NFS) is a series of racing video games published by Electronic Arts (EA) and developed by several studios including Canadian company EA Black Box and British company Criterion Games. The series released its first title, The Need for Speed in 1994. Initially, Need for Speed was exclusive to the fifth generation video game consoles, eventually featuring in all seventh generation consoles by 2008. The titles consist of racing with different cars on various tracks, with some titles including police pursuits in races. Since Need for Speed: Underground, the series has integrated car body customization into gameplay. Need for Speed is the most successful racing video game series in the world, and one of the most successful video game franchises of all time. As of October 2009, over 140 million copies of games in the Need for Speed series have been sold. In June 2012, It was announced that Criterion Games are in full control of the Need for Speed franchise, following Black Box's restructuring. Interesting facts

Through the rainforest over a bridge to nowhere

In a middle of the rainforest in New Zealand in Whanganui national park there is a tourist attraction called "Bridge to Nowhere". You can get to the isolated concrete bridge only by a speedboat and kayak and then walk additional 40 min down and around rainforest paths. The bridge is completely useless because there are no roads on either side of the bridge.

Brave Japanese inhabitants live in a crater

The Japanese island Aogashima in the Philippine Sea is a big undersea crater with a little volcano. Last time the volcano erupted in the 18th century. About 200 inhabitants live there today.

Now something about Smurfs 2!

THE SMURFS 2

The world is back in blue. This is the second part of the movie. Here is what it's about:

Smurfette is having nightmares about betraying her fellow Smurfs and turning them over to Gargamel to be captured. Meanwhile, the Smurfs are preparing a surprise party for Smurfette's birthday, but as Smurfette tries to find out what her fellow Smurfs are planning, none of them are saying a word. She takes this to mean that she is now unwelcome in the village as a Smurf.

In France, Gargamel is now a star attraction, amazing people with his sorcery, but he sees that he is running low on the Smurf essence that gives him his magic powers. With his new creations, Evil Smurfs called the Naughties Vexy and Hackus, Gargamel plans on opening a portal to the Smurf village by using the Eiffel tower as a conduit so that he can kidnap Smurfette and, through her, get Papa Smurf's secret formula for creating Smurfs. However, as the portal he created is not big enough for him to go through, Gargamel takes Vexy and sends her through to the portal to grab Smurfette and bring her to Paris. One of the Smurfs witnesses the abduction of Smurfette and informs Papa Smurf. Papa Smurf uses his magic to create crystals that would allow several of his Smurfs to travel directly to Patrick Winslow's residence in New York City in order to get his help to rescue Smurfette.

Papa originally intended for Brainy, Hefty, and Gutsy to use the crystals, but instead through an accident Clumsy, Grouchy and Vanity use them. Papa and the three Smurfs arrive in the apartment right after the celebration of Blue's fourth birthday where they meet both the Winslows' young boy and Patrick's stepfather Victor Doyle, a man who is a constant embarrassment to Patrick. The Smurfs soon discover where Gargamel is, and so they and the Winslows set off for Paris in order to find him.

Actors and voices:

Neil Patrick Harris (Patrick Winslow)

Jayma Mays (Grace Winslow)

Brendan Gleeson (Victor Doyle, Patrick's stepfather)

Jacob Tremblay (Blue Winslow)

Hank Azaria (Gargamel)

Voices:

Johnathan Winterson (Papa Smurf)

Katy Perry (Smurfette)

Christina Ricci (Vexy, a smart and mischievous Smurf created by Gargamel "Naughty")

J. B. Smoove (Hackus, a funny and physical Smurf created by Gargamel "Naughty")

Now some sport: volleyball

Volleyball

Volleyball is a team sport in which two teams of six players are separated by a net. Each team tries to score points by grounding a ball on the other team's court under organized rules. It has been a part of the official program of the Summer Olympic Games since 1964. play proceeds as follows: a player on one of the teams begins a 'rally' by serving the ball (tossing or releasing it and then hitting it with a hand or arm), from behind the back boundary line of the court, over the net, and into the receiving team's court. The receiving team must not let the ball be grounded within their court. The team may touch the ball up to 3 times but individual players may not touch the ball twice consecutively. Typically, the first two touches are used to set up for an attack, an attempt to direct the ball back over the net in such a way that the serving team is unable to prevent it from being grounded in their court. We can play it indoor or outdoor.

The rally continues, with each team allowed as many as three consecutive touches, until either (1): a team makes a kill, grounding the ball on the opponent's court and winning the rally; or (2): a team commits a fault and loses the rally. The team that wins the rally is awarded a point, and serves the ball to start the next rally. A few of the most common faults include:

causing the ball to touch the ground or floor outside the opponents' court or without first passing over the net;

catching and throwing* the ball;

double hit*: two consecutive contacts with the ball made by the same player;

four consecutive contacts with the ball made by the same team;

net foul: touching the net during play;

foot fault: the foot crosses over the boundary line when serving.

The ball is usually played with the hands or arms, but players can legally strike or push (short contact) the ball with any part of the body. A number of consistent techniques have evolved in volleyball, including spiking and blocking (because these plays are made above the top of the net, the vertical jump is an athletic skill emphasized in the sport) as well as passing, setting, and specialized player positions and offensive and defensive structures.

Time for some music!

Selena Gomez

This year for Selena Gomez is more than successful. She recorded 3 films and she published her new album Star Dance. She is representing it on a Star Dance Tour. The tour was in Europe in September and it continues in USA.

Lady Gaga

Lady Gaga has surprised the music world because she has published her album Applause 10 days before the term. She has published it earlier because some parts of the text have already come to the people by the Internet. This song is an announcement to her new album Artpop which should come in November.
